

Mr. Zapata is the Executive Chairman of Protochips, Inc., a semiconductor based interactive real-time microscopy company serving the materials and life sciences markets. Mr. Zapata is also Entrepreneur-in-Residence with the Entrepreneurial Initiative at NC State University, Chairman of ArrayXpress, a genomics sciences company, and a Board Member of HueMetrix, an instrumentation company. Michael has served in roles as CMO, President, and CEO of multiple companies. He is a retired LTC and combat aviation officer, having served in the US Army and NC Army National Guard.